

4 Brick Court
Family Law and A Lot More

Name: Finola Moore

Year of Call: 1988

Inn: Lincoln's Inn

Education:

University of Southampton BA MA

Oxford Brookes

Practice Areas:

Ancillary Relief
Children
Domestic Violence
Public Law

Profile:

Finola Moore's practice covers the full range of family cases dealing with both Public and Private law matters, representing Local Authorities, parents and children as well as parties in private proceedings.

Additionally her practice has an international aspect and covers abduction, leave to remove and enforcing overseas orders.

Finola's practice also covers all aspects of ancillary relief, from modest but complex cases to high net worth, co-habitee disputes and civil partnership cases.

Her previous career was as a medieval historian and teacher.

Memberships:

FLBA

Languages:

Conversational French

Publications:

Completed article for Family Law Weekly called "enforcing contact under Brussels II R"

© 2012 Four Brick Court