

4 Brick Court
Family Law and A Lot More

Name: Helen Knott

Year of Call: 2002

Inn: Middle Temple

Practice Areas:

Children
Community Care
Public Law

Profile:

Helen acts for Local Authorities, parents and the children in Private and Public Law proceedings. She was a Local Authority Social Worker for 12 years so has a particular interest in and knowledge of childcare work. Helen has a sensitive approach with vulnerable clients and is experienced in advising and representing clients in complex cases.

She also has experience of community care work, and appeared in LLBC v TG, JG and KR [2007] EWHC 2640 (Fam), in which McFarlane J gave guidance in the developing area of the law concerning the protection of vulnerable adults.

Memberships:

FLBA

Languages:

Conversational German

Seminars:

Helen is an experienced trainer and has devised and delivered training in both the family and employment fields for various bodies.

Recently Helen has advised a London Local Authority on Court of Protection and recent development in Mental Health and Capacity Acts and how these changes would affect Local Authorities.

© 2012 Four Brick Court