

4 Brick Court
Family Law and A Lot More

Name: Mark Rawcliffe

Year of Call: 1996

Inn: Middle Temple

Education:

Oxford University (1990–93) Modern History

Diploma in Law – City University (1993–94)

BCV – Inns of Court School of Law (1994–95)

University of Liverpool – European International Law LLM (1995–96)

Practice Areas:

Children
Domestic Violence
Public Law

Profile:

Mark has considerable experience in public and private child law cases, with an emphasis on Care proceedings. Recent cases have included sexual abuse, non-accidental injury and neglect.

He has experience in representing parents under a disability through the Official Solicitor and separately represented children.

Mark is happy to discuss any cases with solicitors prior to being formally instructed.

Memberships:

FLBA

© 2012 Four Brick Court