

4 Brick Court
Family Law and A Lot More

Name: Tahmina Rahman

Year of Call: 2001

Inn: Lincoln's Inn

Education:

University College London.

Bangladesh International Tutorial, Dhaka.

Practice Areas:

Ancillary Relief
Children
Domestic Violence
Family Other

Profile:

Tahmina Rahman practises in both children proceedings (public and private) and ancillary relief.

Having acted for local authorities, parents and children in public law child proceedings, Tahmina is experienced in all stages of non-accidental injuries, sexual abuse and neglect.

She is also experienced in all stages of ancillary relief proceedings including final hearings and enforcement of orders. Tahminas practice also covers PII arguments in Crown Court on behalf of local authorities, cases with an insolvency element, TLATA applications, cohabitee disputes, injunctions, and acting for mentally ill patients.

Memberships:

FLBA

Languages:

Bengali

Appointments:

Tahmina is a co-opted committee member of the FLBA and an elected committee member of the Bar Council; she is a member of the Professional Practice Committee, International Committee and Young Bar Committee.

© 2012 Four Brick Court