My Profile

Billy joined 4 Brick Court in August 2023, having previously clerked at leading commercial and property sets since 2005.

Billy is responsible for the day-to-day practice management of Members of Chambers, maintaining client relationships, diary management, allocation of new work and fee negotiation. Billy is also a member of the Institute of Barristers Clerks.

Billy is quoted in Legal 500 as “personable and likeable”, “has an uncanny ability to choose the right counsel for each piece of work both from technical and budget perspective”, and “amiable and always willing to discuss funding arrangements that suit client’s needs.”

Billy regularly attends the gym outside of Chambers and spends time with his young family.
