"I just wanted to write to you to say Raminder has provided LBR with excellent service. Since I began instructing Raminder in August of this year, I have found her fantastic with the clients, her management of difficult parties and her rep as counsel of the LA has been exceptional.

I have commended her skills to my colleagues.

I look forward to closely working with Raminder from here onwards." Bahia Daifi, LBR (2020)

Raminder practises exclusively in proceedings relating to children. She has a busy practice with cases that predominantly involve public law care proceedings.

Raminder has over ten years of child protection experience; before joining chambers, she was an in-house Solicitor- Advocate for a busy local authority legal team in Berkshire. Raminder transferred to the Bar in March 2020.

When representing local authorities, she benefits from a detailed understanding of the internal procedures and protocols. She is recognised for her ability to understand and meet client expectations. Equally, when representing parents, Raminder is recognised as a kind and caring individual who does the best for all her clients and does everything she can to win the case for them. She has extensive experience in representing vulnerable clients who are assisted by the Official Solicitor.

Raminder is exceptionally skilled in representing local authorities, parents and guardians, in cases where there are complex and severe issues arising out of -:

Sexual abuse
Non- accidental injuries
Neglect
Domestic abuse
Adoption
Disputes out of contact
Special Guardianship Orders
Applications in the High Court for Deprivation of Liberty Orders
